From Saturday Auguſt 21, to Tueſday Auguſt 24, 1756.

Rome, July 31.

MARQUIS Trotti, Commander of the Caſtle of Sinigaglia, having been appointed Governor of the Princes Royal of Saxony, has reſigned his former Poſt, which the Pope has conferred upon Count Marſili. By the laſt Accounts from Viterbo we hear, that Cardinal Valenti finds great Benefit by thoſe Waters. On the 19th Inſtant the Pope held a Conſiſtory, in which he preferred M. Caraffa, Biſhop of Trivento, to the Biſhoprick of Mileto, and nominated M. Potacchi to ſucceed M. Caraffa in that of Trivento. There was likewiſe a Promotion of ſeveral Archbiſhopricks in Germany, Spain, Portugal, and for the Spaniſh and Portugueſe Eaſt and Weſt Indies. On the 25th died Cardinal Mellini, Miniſter of the Empreſs Queen of Hungary, by whoſe Deceaſe there are ſix Caps vacant in the College of Cardinals.

Madrid, Aug. 2. Their Catholick Majeſties continue in perfect Health at their Palace of Buen Retiro, where they were complimented on the 25th paſt by the Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, on Occaſion of its being the Name Day of her moſt Faithful Majeſty the Reigning Queen of Portugal, as well as the Birth Day of the Infante Don Louis, who entered then on the 30th Year of his Age.

Madrid, Aug. 10. The Court received laſt Night an Expreſs from Cadiz, with Advice, That on the 6th Inſtant arrived in that Bay from the Vera Cruz and the Havanna, his Catholick Majeſty's Ships America, Aſia, and Fuerte, with the Frigates Jupiter and Mercurio, and an Advice Boat. Their Cargoes conſiſt in 8,460,659 Dollars in Gold and Silver, 8259 Arroves of Cochineal, 8631 Arroves of Indigo, 3120 Arroves of Sugar, 12,869 Arroves of Snuff, 6596 of Tobacco; and other valuable Effects.

Turin, Aug. 4. The Duke of Savoy had an Attack of a Fever the End of laſt Week, which continued about five Days; but this Day his Royal Highneſs appeared again in Publick perfectly recovered. There was a ſlight Earthquake felt here on Saturday the 31ſt of July, ſome Minutes before Eleven in the Morning, but the Shock was ſo inconſiderable that it did no Harm. It was ſtronger in the Weſtern Part of Piemont towards the Mountains of Dauphiny.

Florence, Aug. 7. On the 24th paſt Ali Effendi, Envoy from the Bey of Tripoly to the Emperor, as Great Duke of Tuſcany, arrived here from Leghorn with a Retinue of twenty Perſons. He lodges in one of the Emperor's Houſes, and is entertained at his Expence. Three of the Emperor's Coaches wait upon him, and the Maſter of the Ceremonies and another Gentleman are appointed to attend him conſtantly during his Stay here. On the 26th he made his firſt Viſit to Count Richecourt, which was performed with great Formality, previous Intimation having been given to many of the Nobility to attend that Ceremony. Reciprocal Viſits have paſſed likewiſe between the Envoy and the other Members of the Regency, and the Foreign Miniſters, (to whom he notified his Arrival in Form) and on the 3d Inſtant he proceeded on his Journey to Vienna.

Dreſden, Aug. 15. Laſt Week ſeveral Pieces of Cannon were ſent from hence, up the Elbe, to Pirna and Koenigſtein. They are likewiſe ſending to the above Places, a great Quantity of Gunpowder, and all Sorts of Ammunition. All the Officers that were abſent from their Duty, are returned to their reſpective Poſts. The Regiments that are quartered in diſtant Places from this City are ordered to march towards the Camp that is forming between Pirna and Koenigſtein.

Bruſſels, Aug. 17. The Empreſs Queen has appointed Count Robiano, Chancellor of Brabant, vacant by the Death of M. Schockaert.
